Don't just take our word for it

"I have used Equals Money cards on a wide range of productions over the past few years. Their services are a massive asset to the productions I have worked on. Their customer service is excellent and the ease of setup is extremely production friendly. Equals Money gives control to the production which is a major change to the traditional credit card. I always try and use Equals Money cards on my Film or TV productions at every opportunity."

"After careful review, Equals Money offered us the best value solution on the market with great benefits such as; all hours online access, easy expense reconciliation, reduced risk by offering a well-recognised card instead of cash and the option of recouping surplus funds at the click of a button if they aren't required.
